Equestria Girls:
Pizza Time
By Perdita Finn

Canterlot City, outside near Canterlot High.
I'm so bored, Applejack. We've got nothing to do.
For real, Rainbow. I wish we could do something for our friends.
Eureka! I got it! Why don't we make pizza for our friends? Then we can have a pizza party!
Great idea, Rainbow! Let's get baking!

Canterlot Baking Center)
Starting the pre-ferment! Looks nice and active!
Just the right balance of flour and oil for a good rise, sugar!
Later that day/24 hours later)
Half is for a quick bake... the other goes in the fridge for a deep, slow rise!
Patience pays off for that perfect flavor!
One or two days later)
Setting this thing to hyper-hot! The steel is getting its preheat on.
Gotta give it a full hour to get soak'd with heat, RD.
500°F (260°C)
1:00 hour remaining
(One or two days later)
Gently does it! Don't push out all the air, just shape it sweet.
(Same day)
A light kiss of sauce, Rainbow! Less is more for a crispy finish.
Got it. A subtle blend of cheese and juuust enough toppings!
(Same day)
Perfect slide! Now, for that intense bake!
Right as rain! Just a few minutes 'til golden-brown bliss, friends!
